 the Isle of Rugen.*

My GOD,
 that rulest in heaven, and earth, and over the

raging sea; how shall I bee able any way
to give thee due thankes, who hast preserved me in this dangerous journey.
Ah Lord GOD! I
give thee thankes,
yea from the bottom of my heart I
give thee thankes.
And I beseech thee,
seeing thou knowest
this my voyage is not undertaken for mine

mine owne honour
and glory, but onely
thy glory, and the good of thy people;
that the Church
which now groanes
under oppression,
may thereby receive
helpe and comfort;
therefore hence-forward, if the houre by thee appointed bee
come, thou wilt afford us thy favour and blessing, and e-

the whole Army.*

I. For forgivenesse of sinnes.

O Lord God, heavenly Father,
who delightest not in the death of a wretched sinner, nor wilt that he perish,
but returne and live.
wee beseech thee,
mer-

mercifully turne away the judgements our finnes have deserved, and plentifully vouchsafe us favour in our Lord Ie-sus Christ. Have pity upon us, miserable sinners, and looke upon us with the eyes of thy mercy, as thou lookedst upon Mary Magdalene that penitent sinner, lying at thy feete, and ear-earnestly bewayling her offences: and the Publican in the Temple, when hee smote his brest, and intreated thy favour;

and the Theefe on the crosse, when hee sought absolution of thee, and received it.
Grant us also this day to receive the same at thy hands:
absolve us in heaven,
and forgive our sins,

O

O God, the author of all comfort, that wee may not bee cast out of thy sight, but may walke in thy feare, serving and pleasing thee in faith and love.

2. For grace.

ALmighty and everlasting God,
which of thy meere
mercy hast called us miserable sinners to

the knowledge of thee in Iesus Christ,
thy welbeloved Son,
from the bottom of our hearts, that thou wilt guide us with thy holy Spirit, and keepe us with thy holy Angels, that the diuell, and wicked
men, and our owne
corrupt flesh, may never thrust us headlong into security, to lead

lead a wicked life to the offence of others;
but that wee may ever quit our selves of their entisements, & set thee alwayes before our eyes, and love thee above all,
and our neighbour
as our selves, and so
may grow in faith,
love, hope, and patience, till our Saviour Iesus Christ com-
meth, and freeth us
of

of all evils wherewith in this world
wee are combating,
and taketh us unto himselfe into his heavenly joyes : to whom with thee &
the holy Ghost, bee honour and glory
for ever, Amen.

3. For

3. For concord.

ALmighty and everlasting God,
the King of glory, Lord of heaven and earth, by whose Spirit all things are governed, and disposed by thy providence, thou art the God of peace, from whom peace and concord doe proceed; wee beseech thee, that thou

thou wilt forgive our finnes, and give us thy divine peace and concord, that in thy feare wee may serue thee, and thou mayest for ever bee glorified by us; who with the Sonne and the holy Ghost livest
and reignest the true and eternall God,
Amen.

ALmighty ever-
lasting G O D,
in the death of a sinner, but wouldest
that all should come to the knowledge of the truth, and bee saved ; wee beseech thee for Iesus Christs
sake, thy onely Son, our Lord, that thou
wilt

wilt give thy grace to all faithfull Teachers, to deliver thy word purely and plainely, and stoutly resist all that hate it, corrupt it with false doctrine, or persecute it with forces;
and also bring them
being enlightned to the true knowledge of thy Majesty. Grant
likewise, O merci-

thee be mercifull un-

of thy Sonne Iesus

wonderfull counsell thou hast given to be a sacrifice for our sinnes, and made him our Mediator
and Advocate, that thou mightest declare both thy most just

just wrath against the finnes of the world, and also thy mercy towards us.
Sanctifie and go-
verne us with thy holy Spirit. Gather,

thy benefits, which unto this day in thy fatherly goodnesse
thou hast bestowed upon us ; Especially that thou hast redeemed us by thine owne Sonne, and hast revealed it to us in thy word, wherein thou offerest forgivenesse of finnes, righteousnesse, and eternall life; to all that

that imbrace it with a penitent heart and a true faith. Wee beseech thee, that in these dangerous
times thou wilt keep thy Word and Sacraments pure and un-
corrupt against all hereticks and false-teachers, especially against the Papists,
who at this time
like ravening wolves and roaring lyons
doe

doe with manifold slaughters and sa-vadge tyranny most vilely scatter and waste thy miserable Christian people:
Behold, O God, the
miserie of thy people, bridle the pride of the enemies, restraine their bloody enterprises, that they may see how thou fightest for thy holy Church, and leavest
it

it not to them for a prey. Wee beseech thee also for all thy servants, to whom thou hast committed the civill government, and the sword of justice; especially for our King and Lord, whom thou hast mercifully appointed for our head & protector: Keepe
him from all danger, secret and open:
Give

Give him prosperous successe, victory, and safety, against his and the King. domes enemies: Defend him with thy mighty hand in this dangerous voyage, which hee hath undertaken for the safety of the Kingdom, and settling of a secure peace. Grant that both he and his whole retinue may re-

returne home safely, after the busineses
are dispatched happily.

In like manner we commend to thee in these our Prayers the Queenes Majestie,
and their excellent
daughter; bles them,
and keepe them
both, of thy fatherly goodnesse and mercy. Also the Counsellors of state, and all

all governours, guide them with thy holy Spirit, that above all things they may advance thy glory, and faithfully seeke the good of the King and kingdome. We beseech thee also for the Army and Navy of the kingdome, for
mines of mettall,
and all things that may helpe the commonwealth and in-
rich

rich the Subjects: for Christs sake turne
away each calamity and destruction: and bestow thy blessing upon all that may profit our true Religion and whole country.

Looke also mercifully, O heavenly Father, upon our fellowes in the same
holy religion, who are miserably op-

C — pref-

pressed of Papists,
and suffer the losse
both of goods and life. Helpe them that they may bee freed
from these miseries.
Save us from pestilence, sudden and unhappy death, scarcity, famine, fire, se-ditions, discords,
haile and Tempest.
Put into our minds
concord, faith, and charity. Comfort all af-

afflicted ones, sicke, Captives, and miserable: Send helpe to all widdows, fatherlesse, women with child, and them that give sucke. Leade all that travell by land or sea, and are in good wayes, that they may well dispatch their businesses, and returne safe home againe.

Deliver us, O Lord

C 2 God,

God, from all evils,
and when our last
houre shall come,
mercifully receive us
into thy kingdome,
and translate our soules out of this vale of miseries into the heavenly paradise,
where we may praise
and glorifie thee
world without end.
Amen.

governe their subjects, which are thy people, so that pub-
like peace, right, and suffer persecutions or temptations, that they may beare their crosse patiently, and safe from all perill both of body and soule, keepe all our guides and gover-nours, both of higher and lower degree:

& finally, the whole
Army and our fellow Souldiers. Lord God
grant us agreeing
and sincere mindes, wise counsell, happy

desired successe in all our endeavours and

of thy holy Name, to our peace, and the peace of our coun-

eternall felicity of all afflicted Christians, who professe the true faith. Shew some token of good towards us, that they
which hate us, may

they see how thou (O Lord) hast helped and comforted us.

O LORD Iesus Christ, Sonne of
the living God, thou

fighting; behold,
thine enemies make a noyse, and they that hate thee, rise up a-

crafty counsell against thy people, &

secret ones. Come,
say they, let us cut
them off, that they bee no more a peo-

name of Israel may bee utterly put out.
Neither doe we put our trust in our owne strength; for wee know, that a King is not holpen

by his great power;
the mighty man is not delivered by his owne valour; An horse is a vaine thing

in thy helpe doe we put our confidence,
who art our refuge,

our enemies to flight with thee on our

They come about

wee shall destroy them; Yea they come about us like
Bees

Elector of Saxonie, thou hast shewed
great salvation to thy people, and these whole provinces; for thy mercy endureth
for ever.

O Lord God of
hosts,

fought for thy people, thou hast delivered us from our cruell enemies : for

The enimie threat-
ned he would waste

whole Country with famines, and kill up all the men, and lead the young men and maydens into captivitic vitie. But thou, O Almighty God, hast bridled them, and put them to flight: thou with thine armie hast quite blotted them out: for thy mercy endureth for ever.

Thou O Lord hast avenged thy people: for thy mercy endureth for ever. Wee give thee thanks O Lord, with our whole whole heart, and tell of all thy marveilous workes, in thee wee rejoyce, and prayse thy Name, O most High, for that thou hast beaten backe

our enemies; they fell, and they perished in thy presence, thou O Lord, hast
pleaded our cause,
and exercised judgement, that thou mightest shew thou
art

art a righteous judge for thy mercy endureth
for ever.

Thou remem-
bredst us, O faithfull God, when we were oppressed; for thy mercy endureth for ever.

The waters went over our soules; but
thou O Lord God, didst not make us a prey to the teeth of our enemies; for thy mercy

ever.

Our soule is escaped,
as a bird out of the snare of the fowler;
the snare is broken and wee are escaped; for thy mercy endureth for ever.

Furthermore wee call upon thee, and beseech thee with our whole heart, O
Lord most mercifull, F that

that thou wilt please to reward both with a temporall and e-ternall blessing, the faithfulnesse sincerely shewed us, both
by the most excellent King of Sweour most courteous Lord. And likewise at time to their yeares may endure for ever, and they may ever rest in thy presence. Per-forme to them mer-

may ever defend them. Heape victories npon them, O mercifull God, but against the fury of the enemies arise &

lift up thy selfe, restraine their malice, make them fall in the pit which they have digged. Becmindefull, O Lord,
of our blood, thrust
the wicked downe
headlong into hell;
and suffer not men
to beare rule over
us. Shew thy won-derfull goodnesse, O
thou the Saviour of them that put their trust

trust in thee, against them that resist thy right hand. Keepe
us as the apple of thine eye, protect us
under the shadow of thy wings, against the wicked that destroy us, against our enemies which lye
in wait for us round about. Arise O Lord
and scatter them, deliver our soule with thy sword from un-

F 3 god-

godly men. Put our enemies to flight,
disperse them as dust, remoove them as the durt of the streets; Remember O Lord,
that the enemies (the Pope and his adherents) doe reproach thee, and that the foolish people
doth blaspheme thy Name. Maintaine
now O Lord, thine
owne honour: why should

should thine & our enemies say, where is now their God?
Arise O Lord, and overthrow the Anti-christian Papacie;
but ever maintaine
thy Word, which is the joy and comfort of our hearts. True-ly O Lord, God of hosts, wee are called by thy Name; thou knowest, that for thy sake onely we suffer persecution. Deliver us therefore from the hands of the wicked, and free us from the power of tyrants; how much soever they oppose us, yet let all their endeavour be to no purpose. Be with us, and remaine with us, that thou mayest helpe and deliver us. O thou God of peace, blesse thy people, and specially ly

ly give peace to this whole principality
of Saxonie. Thou hast promised, O God, that thou wilt give peace to thy people; ô let righteoufnesse and peace kisse
each other; give us good peace, enter-taine thoughts of peace towards us, make and preserve a lovely peace in all our gates and borders. Then shall we therefore give thee thankes, wee shall prayse and glorifie

thee, herefor a while,
hereafter for ever & ever, even thee who livest & raignest one holy, true, most glorious, and blessed God, from this time
forth for evermore,
Amen, Amen.
